-Malalai Joya has more Human Rights than NL-woman,
4 august2009 -

Dear Malalai,

Its time to put thing in perpective...!

- You have more Human Rights than I have. + more money & opportunities too

More Human Rights

- You can work and keep the money you earn
- You have a car, bodyguards, mobility
- You can travel around Earth to hold speeches, talks ...enz...
- You can do or say anything you want to do & say
- You can stay in hotels
- You can accept donations of NGOs or other organisations
- You can publish a book and make money out of it.
- You are a middle-class woman, even in Europe = upperclass in Afghanistan.

I can't = I' ve got less HRs than you have!

- I can fight for my money to come in
- Sit on the sofa, paying my bills....(not repaying my creditcard-loans)
- Not work for an income, now I have NO HRs
- Sit behind my computer now mobility is too expensive
- I'm not invited or supported by media, EU-NGOs 'who want to know whats going on', therefore I've less freedom of speech than you have.
- I can't publish a book, now publishers are partial to Balkenende & co
- Can't turn myself into middle-class or upper-class, now people do not want me to be successful with my ICC-case.

What I think....

- You hate the Karzai-parliament with its warlords, because they 'steel EU-money for their own private life'.
- But, you use donations for writing & talking about your public performances & autobiography.
- Apparently you don't build systems your people need, either.
- You don't give people acces for free to your lawcase against the Karzai-parliament.
- You don't educate the world on NLFs Aghanistan need for a better standard of living.

Sóóóóó.....!?

I'm done with you!

- You only care about your individual memoirs & lifestyle
- You want to be part of the Group Autors in EU & World 'who tell truth about what happend to them in politics'. Are they telling truth or are they causing brainless turmoil?

I keep my promise

= when you bring your lawcase against the Karzai-parliament to ICC, I assist you.

= in the mean time 'you can drop death' because my live is much worse than yours is.

Have a day on the path of the More Honest People,
