Brain Cox, James cillies,

I watched the webcast on 23sept2011 'Opera- time is not time anymore-'.
The science part is too complicated for me.

The science part is too complicated for me.

But I do understand how Gods & Goddesses tease CERN.

Female time = 'life as it is suppose to be'.

You 'll find an explanation fro the 'missing nano's in the way the Galaxy relates to the satelite'.

I have to warn you:'Never turn my indicators & advices into a commercial money-makers-system for yourself.
Gods & Goddess will punish you...They break down your business'.

Because 'you are suppose to do someting in connection with me = help me rescue Earth from ICC without wars'.
Thats the way the system works.

Well, first talk to the satelite. You need to be at a neutrino before time is measured.
