Dear Sir, Madam,

In reply to your e-mail, I have to inform you that the International Court of Justice is not authorized, in view of its functions strictly defined by its Statute (Article 34) and Rules, to give advice or make observations on questions such as those raised in your communication.

The Court's activity is limited to rendering judgments in legal disputes between States submitted to it by the States themselves and giving advisory opinions when it is so requested by UN organs or specialized agencies of the UN system.

It follows that neither the Court nor its Members can consider applications from private individuals or groups, provide them with legal advice or assist them in their relations with the authorities of any country.

That being so, you will, I am sure, understand that, to my regret, no action can be taken on your communication.

Kind regards

Maxime Schouppe

Your message : Bij het Internationaal Strafhof te Den Haag, heb ik tegen de Hoge Raad, kabinetten Balkenende I- IV & gem. Bloemendaal een aanklacht ingediend wegens 'misdriven tegen de menselijkheid'.

Ook het Int.Gerechtshof moet beseffen dat Nederlanders die geen serieuze advocaten voor rechtsbijstand kunnen vinden door de Hoge Raad & Parlement gedwongen worden zich te laten mishandelen & vemoorden...door overheidsfunctionarissen.
